I

pledge and confess that i didn't submit my research entitled to any side, or published in any journal, or presented in a reviewed conference or derived it from an arbitrated master or PhD theses.

I also pledge not to submit my research to any digital website except after a pre-permission from the journal editorial board. In the case i am reluctant to publish my research in the journal after passing the reviewing phase or publish it in another journal, i pledge to pay the reviewing charge to the journal.

This is my confession regarding that and accept my best wishes.
